

Usability Feedback: Offer usability feedback on the website's design and user interface.

- The color combination looks professional.
- Homepage layout easy to understand.
- Some pages take longer to load.
- It would be easier to read if the font size were slightly larger, especially for lengthy text paragraphs.
- To give users confidence that their message was delivered, think about including a confirmation message following form submission.